

I believe there is already too much media power concentrated in too few communication firms. We have only to look at the radio industry to see the potential for allowing a few large companies to control virtually all of our nation's airwaves. Please do not make it easier for communication companies to own more broadcast and other media companies in a given market than they already do. Thank you.